

Tania Micki elected new member of the Board of Directors of EHL Holding SA and the Board of Trustees of the EHL Foundation

Lausanne, 7 December 2020. Tania Micki has joined the Board of Directors of EHL Holding SA and the Board of Trustees of the EHL Foundation as a new member. As a finance specialist, Micki has held leading positions in various internationally active companies for many years.

Tania Micki has begun her duties on December 4th as a new member of the EHL Foundation and as an appointed member of the Board of Directors of EHL Holding SA. The finance expert has extensive professional experience in global companies, heading departments with revenues of up to 2.5 billion Swiss francs. In her various financial functions, she has led strategic business and financial market transformations as well as acquisitions.

Currently Group CFO of Tecan Group AG, a publicly listed life sciences and diagnostics company, Micki speaks six languages, holds a Master's degree in finance from the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce of Paris as well as an MBA from INSEAD. Before taking up her position at Tecan, Micki was Chief Risk Officer and Group Internal Audit Head at Sulzer AG, Vice President Finance, Planning and Analysis Europe at Gate Group and Senior Manager at General Mills.

"I am looking forward to contributing my experience in finance, in the airline catering and food industries to my new function at EHL, thereby helping to lead this iconic and dynamic institution into the future at such a decisive moment of its history," says Tania Micki. "In Tania Micki, we have found a proven expert in financial matters who will stimulate our organization thanks to her diverse experience in various industries, countries and cultures" says a delighted Carole Ackermann, President of the Board of Trustees and Board of Directors at EHL.
